Googolplex Written Out

Stanford University

A stylized graphic of a vinyl record. The text "volume 1000" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font at the top. The number "446" is written in a similar font in the center of the record. The record itself is represented by a series of concentric, slightly wavy lines that form a spiral pattern, suggesting the grooves of a vinyl record. The overall design is minimalist and modern.

In 1940, the mathematician Edward Kasner published the book "Mathematics and the Imagination", in which he popularized the words googol and googolplex which his nephew suggested as names for big numbers.
