Googolplex Written Out

Wolfgang H. Nitsche

Stanford University

A large, stylized number 17210 composed of many small, rounded, pill-shaped segments, resembling a spiral or a large letter 'D'. The segments are arranged in a circular pattern, with the number 17210 written vertically inside the circle. The word 'volume' is written to the left of the top of the circle, and the number 100000 is written to the right of the top of the circle.

In 1940, the mathematician Edward Kasner published the book "Mathematics and the Imagination", in which he popularized the words googol and googolplex which his nephew suggested as names for big numbers.
