Googolplex Written Out

Stanford University

A black and white graphic. At the top left, the word "volume" is written in a bold, sans-serif font. To its right, a large, stylized number "9" is formed by a spiral of smaller "9"s. The spiral starts from the center and winds outwards, creating a shape that resembles a large "6" or a stylized "9". The overall composition is minimalist and geometric.

In 1940, the mathematician Edward Kasner published the book "Mathematics and the Imagination", in which he popularized the words googol and googolplex which his nephew suggested as names for big numbers.
